

Up to $300 Home Energy Improvement Federal Tax Credit
on our entire Digital Tankless line.

Just another way Paloma is committed to the environment.

Homeowners, you now qualify for a federal tax credit up to $300 for installing any model in Paloma's Digital Tankless Line in your principal residence. This is because all of Paloma's Digital Tankless heaters meet the rigorous rules for a high-efficiency water heater under the Department of Energy standards.

For more information on this Homeowner Energy-Efficiency Improvement Tax Credit, go to http://www.ase.org/content/article/detail/2654#home_improvement . Qualified models must be installed between January 1, 2006 and December 31, 2007.

For your tax records, download the Statement of Certification from this page. Keep it with a copy of your receipt. For more detailed information, please consult your tax advisor.
